MOVE TO OPEN SUNLOCH MINE IS FORECAST

Signs of Activity in Local Property Follow Coast Copper Developments

Construction of Smelter on Coast by Consolidated is Seen as Likely

Developments at the Sunloch copper mine at Jordan River, near Victoria, controlled by the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Montreal, are being negotiated, it was announced today, following the investigations carried out there during March by Dr. S. J. Schofield of the mining faculty, University of B.C., and officials of the Howe Sound Copper Company of New York, operating the Britannia mines near Vancouver.

After buying the mine at the end of the war, the Consolidated carried out tunnel and exploratory work and then closed down and devoted all its attention on the island to investigating the coast copper property near Quatsino, which has now given unexpectedly high results.

Sale of the remaining block of stock which was held in the Sunloch was made at the first of this week by George E. Winkler, the discoverer of the mine, it was announced today. The developments in connection with the mine have been reflected in the activity in the Sunloch shares on the Vancouver and Victoria stock exchanges since last Saturday, sales in the stock rising from 50 cents to $1 a share today.

OVER WIDE RANGE

The investigation carried out by Dr. Schofield and the Britannia officials at Jordan River revealed that the Sunloch copper deposit extends over a wider range of Gabbro claims adjoining, giving a body of ore much greater than had been estimated in the original Sunloch body as opened up by tunnels.

The comparative register figures today showed that out of 1,000,000 issued shares of the Sunloch, the Consolidated Company itself has accumulated over $12,000 shares. In addition a quantity of Sunloch shares is held in the name of officials of the Consolidated. Remaining ownership of the mine is divided chiefly among J. Murray Lay, manager of the Imperial Bank, and W. B. Powell, Vancouver, Edmonton, and Vancouver, R. B. Bruce, Dr. W. H. Cumming, Mrs. Edith Dent, Mrs. M. M. MacDonald, and G. H. Kilburn of Victoria. Dr. W. H. Coffin, G. E. Hunter of Rossland, B.C.; Rufus J. Winter of Nelson, B.C.; and several other students at Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., and several others who hold fractional interests.

A narrow gauge railway has already been built along the Jordan River from the mine part of the distance to the head of the B.C. Electric, where it is proposed under the plans given out when the mine was acquired, to construct the mill.

It is expected that the Sunloch will be opened in connection with the Consolidated's other operations on the island at Quatsino and the reported intention of the company to build a smelter on the coast, if sufficient tonnage of ore can be guaranteed. This tonnage now seems to be near realization, with the developments at the Coast Copper, along with the Sunloch, and the possibility of ore being handled from the Britannia and other properties on the mainland.

DOUGLAS INQUEST IN VANCOUVER TO-DAY

Jury to Report on Death of Man Whose Body Was Found in Hotel

Vancouver, April 7.—Inquest on the death of Marshall Douglas, Vancouver, advertising man, slain in room 216 in the Canada Hotel here early last Tuesday morning, will be opened at the city morgue this afternoon. It is expected Robert Moore and Angus Nicholson, both charged with murder in connection with Douglas's death, will be present.

Both men have maintained in their preliminary statements to police that they remember nothing of what happened in the hotel room where the body of Douglas was found.

MESSAGE AWAITED

A new angle developed in the case when Mrs. Elsie Whittie Douglas of San Francisco wired the city police that the murdered man was her husband, from whom she had been separated fifteen years. In response to her wire received yesterday, the police telegraphed details of Douglas's death and the description of the body to San Francisco. No further word has been received.

According to the "Mrs. Douglas" of San Francisco, Douglas had two sons and a daughter in San Francisco, and had never secured a divorce from her. According to a dispatch from the southern city, "Mrs. Douglas" will claim the effects and body of the murdered man.

According to friends of the murdered man, Douglas was at one time before the war engaged in an advertising promotion business in San Francisco and had a wife there, although it was understood he had obtained a divorce.

Douglas was forty years of age. Moore is thirty-nine and Nicholson is thirty-four.

JUBILEE SILVER DOLLARS IN CANADA ARE PROPOSED

Vancouver, April 7.—A suggestion that there should be a special issue of silver dollars to commemorate the sixtieth anniversary of Confederation, July 1 next, will be laid before the Minister of Finance in Ottawa.

Notification that a committee had been appointed to present the proposal to Mr. Robb has been received from Hon. J. H. King by the Vancouver committee assisting in Canada's preparations for its Diamond Jubilee celebration.

Before next Dominion Day, an official version of "O Canada" should be proclaimed as the National Anthem, according to a resolution passed last night by the Vancouver committee and forwarded to the authorities at Ottawa.

VISCOUNT WILLINGDON WILL TURN FIRST SOD FOR KIWANIS POOL

His Excellency, the Governor-General has consented to turn the first sod for the new Kiwanis wading pool, to be constructed at Central Park. The ceremony will take place at 10 a.m., Saturday, immediately after Viscount Willingdon has officiated at the tree-planting ceremony at the native botanical gardens at Beacon Hill. Members of the executive of the Kiwanis Club and city officials will select the site for the new pool to-day.

CANADA'S ENVOY GREETED HERE BY LAURIER CLUB

Hon. Ernest Lapointe May Speak in Victoria on Return
From Australia

Under Stephen Jones, president, of the Laurier Club, Victoria Liberals welcomed Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of the Interior, on his arrival in Victoria last evening on the Aorangi on his way to Australia, where he will represent this country at the opening of the new Australian capital at Canberra.

Accompanying Mr. Jones were W. McK. Ivel, vice-president of the Laurier Club, Carew Martin, Norman Whittaker and H. O'Halloran, C. J. W. Spratt, president of the Victoria Liberal Association, was there to represent his organization.

Hon. J. D. MacLean, Hon. A. M. Manson and Hon. W. H. Tupperland, of the Provincial Government were also at the boat to greet Mr. Lapointe.

Mr. Lapointe was invited by Mr. Jones to speak in Victoria on his way back from Australia, as this will be the first Canadian centre he will touch on his return from participating in the opening of the Australian Parliament. The minister would not commit himself to any statement of his voyage to Australia, as it was too far ahead to make any engagement. Arrangements were made to communicate by wireless with Lapointe on his return from the Antipodes, in connection with the Canadian-Australian Trade Treaty.

ROSY FUTURE

It was natural to suppose that the Liberal party in Canada would make gains at the next Federal election, the Minister admitted. He anticipated strong support for the party from Western Canada.

Bellingham is to Have Paper Factory

Bellingham, Wash., April 7.—Plans for a pulp and paper factory near the city sawmill here, the ultimate cost of which would be $5,000,000, were announced to-day by J. H. Biodel, president of the Biodel-Bloodin Lumber Mills. The building of the factory depends on the company's efforts to obtain the site in the harbor area south of the lumber mill and the assurances of sufficient water at reduced rates from the city, according to Mr. Biodel.

CARIBOO ROAD TO OPEN ON MAY 24

May 24 has been set as the tentative date for the opening of the Cariboo Road, linking the Coast of British Columbia with the Interior. Hon. W. H. Tupperland, Minister of Public Works, announced to-day. When the road is opened tolls of $2 or $2.50 will be charged for cars traveling over the road for traffic now.

NEW BRUNSWICK IS SOON TO HAVE LIQUOR CONTROL SYSTEM

Bill Now Before Legislature of Province Provides For Sale
By Government

People of Prince Edward Island to Decide Question at Election in 1927

Fredericton, N.B., April 7.—By a vote of 27 to 20, with all the nine members of the Government in the ranks as well as the opposition, the Legislature of New Brunswick passed shortly before last night a motion for introduction of the bill which is to put New Brunswick in the list of Canadian provinces which have abandoned prohibition for government control and sale of liquor.

Premier Baxter outlined the measure, which he introduced. It will have the effect of permitting the sale of liquor under the commission system, purchases to be made at government stores, with certain restrictions with regard to and heavy penalties against bootlegging and other infractions of the law. The plan follows closely the enactment recently passed in Ontario except that no mention is made of permits.

NOVA SCOTIA THE LAST

There is every probability the act will become law as Premier Baxter commands a large Conservative majority in the Legislature. This will leave only two provinces in Canada, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, and Premier J. D. Stewart of Prince Edward Island has already signified his intention of fighting an election campaign this year on a government liquor control platform.

THREE COMMISSIONERS

Provisions of the New Brunswick bill include:

The commission will be composed of three members to be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council and will have supreme authority in administration of the act through regulations it may promulgate.

Each of the commissioners is to be appointed for a period of ten years and may be removed only by a two-thirds vote of the Legislature.

He can not be overruled by the other members of the board. Location of government stores, which shall be the only places where liquor can be sold unless provided otherwise by the board, shall be determined solely by the board.

There is no provision made for the sale of liquor, except in packages bearing the stamp of the board at government stores, unless otherwise provided for in regulations the board may make under its authority.

Liquor purchased by any person under the act may be kept and consumed only in his residence, or in the guest room of a bona fide guest at a hotel, except as the regulations permit.

CRAVEN STAKES WON BY TATTOO

Newmarket, Eng., April 7.—Tattoo, owned by Anthony de Rothschild, won the famous Craven Stakes this afternoon by two lengths from the Antipodes, in connection with the Canadian-Australian Trade Treaty.

Tattoo started at 100 to 6 against Applecross, a warm favorite, was at 9 to 4 against Son and Heir at 10 to 1 against.

Tattoo, by virtue of his win in a large field of classic candidates, achieves a leading place in the field for the 2,000 Guineas and the Derby. The race is fifty years old and noted as a trial for Derby candidates.

Tattoo, in his two-year-old form, did not win any big races last year. Applecross, however, raced often and a number of events, notably the Kam Produce Stakes at Goodwood, Son and Heir ran with moderate success.

King Ferdinand Regains Strength

Bucharest, April 7.—The condition of King Ferdinand, who is suffering from influenza, continued to improve to-day. It was stated he seemed to have more strength and had been able to sleep well.

TAKES U.S. MARINES TO FIELD IN CHINA

Bank Clearings Here Gain 20 Per Cent

Victoria bank clearings for the week ending noon to-day show an increase of 20 per cent. over the corresponding week of last year, according to the figures issued the Clearing House this afternoon.

The comparative figures are:
1927 ..... $2,255,852
1926 ..... 1,834,210

GEORGIAN BAY CANAL MEASURE IS VOTED DOWN

Ottawa, April 7.—The Georgian Bay Canal Bill, to renew the charter of that company, was defeated at a session of the railway committee of the House of Commons this afternoon with only one dissenting voice.

Postal Rate on Newspapers is Cut

Ottawa, April 7.—The bill which reduces the postage on newspapers from 1 1/2 to 1 cent a pound was given third reading by the House of Commons to-day following a lengthy discussion in committee.

GRAIN ELEVATOR WAS DESTROYED BY FIRE

25,000 Bushels of Wheat in Structure at Fort William,
Ontario, Ruined

Fort William, Ont., April 7.—The Willey Law Elevator here, containing about 25,000 bushels of wheat, was destroyed by fire early to-day. During the night firemen had subdued a blaze in the plant, but they were summoned about an hour later to find the elevator enveloped in flames.

Two firemen were injured slightly by an explosion of an unknown origin.

The elevator and its contents were totally destroyed, with a loss estimated at $100,000.

Two-year Narcotic Jail Term Imposed

Vancouver, April 7.—Previously having pleaded guilty to distributing narcotic drugs, James Maal was sentenced by Magistrate H. C. Shaw in the police court here to-day to spend two years in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $500 and $250 costs or serve an additional three months' imprisonment.

Maal was arrested by customs officers and detectives of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police following investigations of the entry into Canada from Italian steamships of opium, morphine and cocaine.

DOUGLAS STREET PAVING IS URGED ON CITY COUNCIL

Strip From Yates Street to Fisgard on Douglas Named
By Works Committee

Improvement of Roadway at C.P.R. Docks is Also Mooted in Report

An early start on the resurfacing of Douglas Street, from the end of the pavement at Fisgard southward to Yates Street, will be made by the city if the council on Monday adopts a recommendation of its works committee. At present this portion is included in the wood block areas which are under a steady programme of replacement.

The paving of Douglas Street was one of the projects intimated by the public works committee, chairman Alderman Wm. Marchant, at the first of the year, but it may not be possible to do the entire area this year. Instead, the paving may be carried on its present limits at Fisgard as far as Yates Street, making a considerable improvement in the appearance of that thoroughfare.

From Yates to Fort on Douglas is also in the wooden block type of paving, and due for replacement. The city spends upwards of $30,000 yearly in repaving former wooden block surfaces, and will complete the entire area in the course of the next few years.

The works committee will also recommend the removal of a strip of boulevard at Belleville Street, near the C.P.R. Docks, and the paving of Belleville for a short distance westward at the docks.

Upwards of ten streets are named in a list of trails which will be recommended to the council on Monday.

ITALY DECLARES FOR SECRET DIPLOMACY

New Treaty With Hungary
Not Registered With League of Nations

Rome, April 7.—Fascist Italy has decided to try to replace what is known as the "Mussolinian Method" of guaranteeing European peace, what is termed the "Mussolinian Method."

This conclusion was drawn in public circles to-day from the text of the Treaty of Friendship, Arbitration and Conciliation between Italy and Hungary, which was signed in Rome Tuesday night, and which differs significantly in three respects from the large number of similar treaties concluded recently between Italy and other European nations.

NO LEAGUE REGISTRATION

The differences are, first, that the treaty contains no provision for registration with the League of Nations; second, that it re-opens the path for the official restoration of "secret diplomacy," and, third, that it renders remote any ultimate recourse to the International Court at The Hague for settlement of international disputes.

WELCOMED BY PRESS

The entire press, while printing the text of the main treaty and commenting on it enthusiastically, refrains from publishing the text of the appendix concerning the methods of conciliation.

The semi-official Tribuna, analyzing the meaning of the treaty, says it is a further sign of the methodical development of the Mussolinian policy of balancing power in Central Western Europe.

The foolishness of preserving "absurd definitions in the relations of peoples which are really relations of force," the Tribuna maintains, is shown by the attitude of the Allied nations in courtship favor of Hungary while outlawing Hungary.

$20,000 Fire in Mission, B.C., To-day

Mission City, B.C., April 7.—Fire of unknown origin which threatened for a time to destroy most of the business blocks on the south side of the main street here early to-day was eventually confined to the Mission Motors Building, in which it had broken out. The loss is estimated at nearly $20,000.

PINEDO IS TO FLY WESTWARD ALONG CANADIAN BORDER

Reported Italian Aviators, With New Plane, Will Journey From New York

Transatlantic Plane Burned in Arizona; Pinedo Denies Plot Story

San Diego, Cal., April 7.—Four United States navy aeroplanes under command of Lieut. A. E. Montgomery started from the North Island Naval Air Station here to-day for Phoenix, Arizona, where they are to meet Commander de Pinedo, Italian aviator, and his companions and bring them to San Diego tomorrow.

Acceptance of the offer of the planes, made by Capt. Stafford Doyle, captain of the North Island Air Station, was received from Pinedo this morning.

ALONG CANADIAN BORDER

L. G. Perna, Italian vice-consul here, had a telephone conversation last evening with Pinedo and then announced that the aviator was planning to go back to New York to wait for another plane to be sent from Italy, in that plane he would return to the Pacific Coast by way of the Canadian border, Perna said, fly down the coast to San Diego and then go back to the Atlantic coast by way to New Orleans.

ANTI-FASCISM SEEN

Rome, April 7.—Some of the leading Rome newspapers to-day expressed the opinion that the destruction of Commander de Pinedo's aeroplane at the Roosevelt dam in Arizona yesterday had been caused by anti-Fascist agents. At the same time they voiced appreciation of the action of the United States in offering the Italian flier another machine.

The principal comment was presented by The Popolo di Roma under the heading, "Odious Gesture of Anti-Fascism Abroad Against the Wings of de Pinedo."

NOT SURPRISED

While Italian air circles were pained and shocked at the news of the destruction of the plane, the paper said they were not surprised, because official circles are fully informed of the unimpeachable anti-national activities being carried on in America by a few expatriates.

"This infinitely vile act of sabotage, which tried to crush the greatest enterprise human daring ever undertook," it continued, "was so clearly foreseen that its delay until this moment is remarkable."

This view, the paper said, was shared by the Ministry of Aeronautics, which had been following articles published by anti-Fascist organs in the United States and distributed by the thousands in leaflets. One of these was said to have read:

"De Pinedo is the messenger of Fascism and therefore our worst enemy. We will know, however, how to give him an appropriate welcome when he arrives in America."

The Popolo di Roma said the burning of the plane would "have the effect of showing the depth to which anti-Fascism is reduced and will cause universal admiration for Mussolini and Pinedo."

ACCUSED'S STORY TO THE POLICE IS BARRIED FROM JURY

Judge's Ruling in Vancouver
Favors Mrs. Maud McIntyre,
Charged With Murder

Vancouver, April 7.—Counsel defending Mrs. Maud McIntyre, whose trial on a charge of having murdered her husband was resumed in the police court here to-day, succeeded in persuading Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald to rule as inadmissible a statement the accused made to Vancouver police officers in Vancouver General Hospital on the day after the fatality.

Accompanied by Detective Robert Knox, Detective A. G. McNeill had placed Mrs. McIntyre under arrest on December 24 while she was a patient in the hospital.

McNeill testified he had read the charge to Mrs. McIntyre and warned her she was not obliged to say anything and that anything she did say would be used against her at her trial.

The witness had not farther than the explanation that she had then broken down and cried when J. E. Bird and R. L. Maitland strenuously objected to anything which might have been said by Mrs. McIntyre to the officers.

PRESSURE CLAIMED

Mrs. Maitland argued Detective McNeill, while attempting to be very fair, had invited the accused to speak. Mr. Bird contended that in Mrs. McIntyre's nervous condition the presence of the officers exerted pressure on her to talk.

Prosecutor A. M. Johnson, K.C., argued for the admissibility of the statement.

"I think you are right," said the judge to Mr. Johnson, "but she was lying there ill; and I will give the prisoner the benefit of the doubt." "Gentlemen of the jury," said the judge, "eliminate anything from your minds." (Continued on page 3)

NORTH CHINA AND SOVIET MAY BREAK RELATIONS

New Factor in Oriental Situation May Be Introduced as Result of Chang Tso-Lin's Raid on Russian Buildings in Peking; Claim Made Much Evidence Found to Prove Soviet Plotting to Attempt Overthrow of Northern Chinese Administration

Peking, April 7.—Severance of relations between Peking and Moscow is regarded as probable in many quarters to-day as a consequence of yesterday's raid on several buildings near the Soviet Embassy in Peking.

The authorities of the Ankuochin, or Allied Northern armies, stated the raid had produced "overwhelming evidence" that the Soviet Union was deeply involved in plots to overthrow law and order in Northern China.

It was learned Dr. Wellington Koo, Acting Premier and Foreign Minister of the Peking Government, at Marshal Chang Tso-Lin's request had drafted a protest to the Soviet Charge d'Affaires, accusing the Embassy of sheltering criminal plotters who were attempting to undermine the authority of the Government.

The premises raided included the Soviet Bank, the Eastern Railway Building and a building formerly used by the Russian legation guards in Czarist days.

It is understood that during continuation of the search last night 200 pistols were found.

KOO RESIGNS AS HEAD OF CABINET OF NORTH CHINA

Peking, April 7.—Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo tendered his resignation as Premier to-day to Marshal Chang Tso-Lin. It is reported General Yang Yu-Ting, Chang's chief adviser, will become Premier.

ACTS OF VIOLENCE IN HANKOW REGION

Conditions in That War-disturbed Part of China Growing Steadily Worse

Shanghai, April 7.—"Situation growing worse steadily," was a wireless report received here to-day from Hankow, where riotous anti-foreign outbreaks occurred over the week-end.

From all accounts, lawlessness in Hankow is increasing, with apparently no effort being made to check it. The commander of the United States Yangtze River patrol is pressing Americans still in that city to hasten their evacuation. Another Japanese cruiser has arrived.

Japanese are leaving Hankow in large numbers and 100 Germans are negotiating to charter a steamer to take them away. The members of the Russian colony are making preparations for their departure.

At Ichang, further up the Yangtze from Hankow, 100 Japanese men, women and children have taken quarters aboard gunboats and tug boats because of the threatening situation.

CANADIAN-U.S. TRADE REPORT IS DENIED

Ottawa, April 7.—"Absolutely none," replied Premier King this afternoon when questioned if there was any truth in a report from Washington that the Canadian Government had sent to Washington a tentative draft reciprocity treaty with the United States.

Liquor Sentence Was Imposed To-day In Vancouver City

Vancouver, April 7.—Commenting that it was a shame a child should be called into the witness box and say things her mother had told her to say, Magistrate J. A. Findlay in police court here to-day imposed a sentence of a fine of $400 or three months in jail on Mrs. Margaret Pastro, convicted of a charge of selling liquor.

The eleven-year-old daughter of the accused woman was called by the defence and testified the contents of cups found by police officers raiding the premises was coffee, whereas prosecution testimony was that the liquid was rum.

BRITISH FOOTBALL

London, April 7.—Football games to-day resulted as follows:
ENGLISH LEAGUE—FIRST DIVISION
Leicester 3, Cardiff 1
THIRD DIVISION
Southern Section
Northampton 1, Millwall 4.

DAUGHTER OF ALDERMAN OF VANCOUVER DIED

Vancouver, April 7.—Eileen, fifteen-year-old daughter of Alderman and Mrs. P. C. Gibbens, died after parents' home here to-day.

The girl had sustained an injury to her spine about four years ago, and had never completely recovered from this accident.

PATTULLO CREATES NEW FOREST RESERVE

Adding some twenty-six square miles of timber to the large area already set aside by the Government for perpetual forest production, Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, has reserved East Thule Island, in Seymour Narrows, for timbering purposes. All timber on the island will be preserved intact for cutting when it is mature.

LOVEK DECORATIONS AT GUILD BAZAAR

Undertaking Nets $560; Lamp From Old Bishopsclose Cherry Tree Sold

Unusually beautiful decorations marked the stalls at the dollar bazaar held in the Memorial Hall gymnasium yesterday afternoon, and the members of the Women's Guild who sponsored the affair reaped not only financial success but many congratulations as well. The proceeds of the afternoon's sale amounted to $560.

Plum blossoms, statice and forsythia were used in colored effect, while the candy stall boasted quantities of dainty realistic paper dainties, and the home cooking stall chose Calla lilies and greenery for its unusual and effective decorative scheme.

Much interest was taken in a handsome standard lamp made by Donovan Slater, son of Mr. and Mrs. Slater of Vancouver Street, from the old cherry tree which stood for many years in the garden at old Bishopsclose, and donated by them to the sale.

Eager purchasers surrounded the stalls at the opening hour, and the following stalls were quickly denuded of their attractive wares: Linen table in charge of Mrs. C. S. Quainton; $1 fancywork, Mrs. Dallin; 75¢ stall, Miss M. Lettice; 50¢ table, Mrs. Aldridge; tulip garden, Mrs. Oliver; candy, Mrs. Patterson; home-cooking, Mrs. Chow. Mrs. Grant was in charge of the afternoon tea, which was served at decorated tables at one end of the hall.

He returned to-day, when the story leaked out.

ACID STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Sufferers From Indigestion OUT THIS OUT

"Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, sourness, gas, heartburn, food fermentation, etc., are caused nine times in ten by chronic acid stomach," says a well-known authority.

Burning hydrochloric acid develops in the stomach at an alarming rate. The acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining and often leads to gastritis or stomach ulcers. Don't dose an acid stomach with pepper or artificial digestants that only give temporary relief from pain by doubling the acid fermenting food out of the stomach into the intestines.

Instead, neutralize or sweeten your acid stomach after meals with a little Bileurated Magnesia and not only will the pain vanish, but your meals will digest naturally. There is nothing better than Bileurated Magnesia to sweeten and settle an acid stomach. Your stomach acts and feels fine in just a few minutes. Bileurated Magnesia can be obtained from any reliable druggist in either powder or tablet form. It is safe, reliable, easy and pleasant to use, is not a laxative and is not at all expensive. (Adv.)

NEW SAW MAKES New Cell Bars Needed in Jails

Toronto, April 7.—Hector H. McBain, a locksmith of this city, proved before representatives of several steel firms and a representative of the Ontario Government, that "steel bars do not a prison make, nor iron bars a cage," when he sawed his way through steel bars of a kind intended for a northern Ontario jail. He did it with a platinum-nickel saw and a specially tempered steel file. McBain has been experimenting with this new type of saw for some time, and he claims it can be folded up and secreted in the mouth, between the cheek and teeth.

To combat the possibilities of jail breaking with his new saw, McBain has invented a new type of cell bar that cannot be cut through even with the silk saw.

He claims he can cut his way out of any jail at present in use inside of two hours.

B.C. Bachelor Still Keeps Girls Guessing in England

London, April 7 (Canadian Press).—The Mayor of Lancaster is still receiving letters from ladies anxious to be placed in correspondence with the bachelor in New Westminster, B.C., who asked his worship to assist in finding him a wife. A widow writes: "I neither dance nor smoke, and I have not shingled." Another writes: "I have been shingled for four years and as far south as Dover. One offer is from two young women, who make it clear they will remain the best of friends whichever is chosen. Another declares she is 'does not want to be married in a hurry. Marry in haste, repent at leisure.' She would rather go out to British Columbia and let the prospectus present itself after a reasonable time.

One who has already been in Canada offers to return. A Yorkshire girl, who confesses to having been shingled, says she is domesticated and wants a good man so that they can help each other to lead straight lives. "I will do my best to make him happy," she adds.

Married Women's Status Under Fire

Agnes McPhail, M.P., Objects to Naturalization Law in House

Ottawa, April 7.—Miss Agnes McPhail, M.P., who is a British subject married to a Canadian, objected to the House yesterday afternoon to the status of married women under the new naturalization law. She brought up the question on a motion to go into supply.

Miss McPhail explained that under the present status if a woman who was a British subject married an alien, she lost her British citizenship and if an alien woman married a British subject she became a British subject. This was insulting to women. It transferred their allegiance without their consent and the law mixed up marriage and citizenship, where they should be kept separate. There were scores of women in this country who had married aliens and had lost their citizenship unless their husbands became citizens of interest and the women became citizens of no country at all.

She cited a number of instances where women in this position were unable to get passports, unable to vote, unable to become teachers, etc. The law in the United States did not make the wife take the nationality of her husband unless she so desired.

WHICH ONE?

The various acts passed in the House respecting the naturalization were outlined by Miss MacPhail. The supporters of the present law had insisted that husband and wife have different nationalities would disrupt the home. "Man and wife were one," they said. "We all know that, but which one?" She added that giving greater consideration to the rights of women had not disrupted the home. A real home was a community of interest and she urged that when a British woman married an alien she should have the power to decide whether she retained her British citizenship.

Hon. Fernand Rinfret, Secretary of State, explained that the present naturalization act was in accord with the United Kingdom and the various Dominions. The advantage of it was that by its uniformity a citizen of any Dominion had empire citizenship. If one country made a change without the others then its change without the others then its

Lake Hill W.I. to Give School Prizes

The monthly meeting of Lake Hill Women's Institute was held in the Community Hall on Tuesday afternoon. There were fourteen members and one visitor present. Mrs. D. Gordon gave an interesting address on "Home Industries," telling of a number of ways in which the home woman may increase her income.

A report of the March 30 was given by Mrs. R. Macnicol, and showed a balance of $41.45 to be forwarded for the fund. Mrs. Service reported on three successful card parties held during the month. The matter of the garden party for June 16 was laid over to the May meeting.

Lake Hill Institute will offer three prizes to Lake Hill school this year: one for the highest entrance marks and one in each of the two rooms for the pupil making the greatest progress.

Mrs. Peddle reported on the class in physical culture and dancing. There are now over thirty pupils enrolled, and good progress is being made. A session of 13 was made to the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League, tuberculous section. Mrs. Moody and Mrs. Macnicol were hostesses at tea.

Among the social functions arranged in connection with the visit of Their Excellencies to Vancouver next week, is the luncheon to be given in honor of Lady Willingdon by Mrs. J. W. de B. Farrie at her home, 3351 Granville Street, on Wednesday, a group of women closely connected with the University will meet Lady Willingdon at the luncheon.

No More Piles

Thousands Bless Dr. Leonard's, the Physician Who Discovered This Common Sense Remedy

If you think that the surgeon's knife is the only method of escape from the misery of piles, it's because you haven't heard of the new treatment known as Dr. Leonard's HEM-ROID.

This Doctor's treatment is internal. By experimenting, he discovered the cause of piles and then went further and compounded a remedy that would remove the cause.

Every pile sufferer should benefit by discovery, and that there will be no doubt or delay, MacPhail's Drug Co. and all druggists are authorized to sell HEM-ROID with guarantee that it will do as stated or money back.

On that honorable basis every sufferer should secure a package of Dr. Leonard's HEM-ROID to-day. (Adv.)

POSTAL WORKERS SAY REVISION OF PAY INADEQUATE

Ask Postmaster-General of Canada to Discuss Increases
With Deputation

Vancouver, April 7.—A deputation of postal employees of Montreal, Quebec and Ottawa, representing all postal employees affected, is endeavoring to arrange an interview with the Postmaster-General to enter a protest against the recent salary revision schedule as being totally inadequate. The deputation claims the revision leaves the large rank and file of the postal service with less remuneration than they received in the financial year 1925-26.

BONUS DISCONTINUED
Vancouver, April 7.—Protesting against declarations in a recent announcement at Ottawa on civil service salaries, the Amalgamated Civil Servants of Canada, through Fred Knowles of Vancouver, national president, and C. Gardner, national secretary, have written to the Federal Government.

In the communication it is charged the facts of the case have been misrepresented. It is declared members of the civil service did not receive an increase in remuneration in 1924. It is pointed out the increase of $150 ordered in 1924 did not increase their remuneration as the annual bonus was discontinued. The bonus was, in all cases, either equal to or more than the amount of the salary increase, it is stated.

The announcement to which exception has been taken stated "that a general increase in salaries is to be effective April 1, 1927, on the following basis: $120 increase to all civil servants, except junior clerks, grade one, and those who received an increase in salary of $180 in 1924, who are to receive an increase in salary of $60 per annum."

EQUALIZATION
The organization, in its communication to Ottawa, states: "We find this reduction, or at the best an equalization of pay, is called an $180 increase for the purpose of depriving the civil servants affected of the full benefit of the new increase."

Complaint is also made that the salary adjustment has been made only after three years of delay and that the revision dates only from April 1, 1927.

"We consider after four years' agitation on the salary question that to be offered in most cases from $42 to $60 is a direct insult to the patient and long-suffering service," the protest concludes.

Washington, April 7.—Authorization for the search by Chinese local authorities of "certain private properties" of the Dahli Bank beyond the Chinese Eastern Railway adjacent to the Russian Embassy in the Peking The Netherlands, as the senior diplomat in Peking, reported to-day to the State Department.

NO FIGHTING
Four Russians barricaded themselves in a house and secured various papers, it was said, but they were eventually overpowered without having fired upon the Chinese and there were no fighting and no serious injuries on either side.

MISSIONARY MISSING
Peking, April 7.—Dr. C. P. Friberg, a Lutheran missionary of St. Peter, Minn., is missing in Northern Honan province. It is feared he was made captive by bandits.

The raid on Soviet buildings in Peking yesterday, which resulted in the removal and detention of twenty-two Russians and about fifty Chinese, described as agitators, was conducted by representatives of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, Manchurian warlord, who is commander of the Northern armies defending Peking and ruler of North China. The troops were assisted by local police.

Two persons from the United States were detained in an entirely separate incident—Mrs. Mildred Mitchell, formerly of San Francisco and Honolulu, and Wilbur Burton, both of whom are connected with publications which have been accused of hostility to the Northern cause. Although no formal charge against them was announced, both were detained under surveillance by agents of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin at the Hotel Dunrood, which is outside of the Legation headquarters.

COURT IN HOUSE
On the application of Mr. Bird, the judge arranged that the court should sit in the morning at the house of Miss Esten, colored, here, to take her evidence.

Counsel explained this defence witness was too ill to attend in the courtroom. She had been employed in the McIntyre household for a year and a half, and Mr. Bird said her evidence was essential.

Seventeen witnesses would be called for the defence, said Mr. Bird. An attempt will be made to conclude the trial to-morrow. James Edward McIntyre was the man whose death by shooting in the Angelus Hotel here December 23 last was the cause of the trial. Nine-year-old William John McIntyre, a son, was a witness yesterday afternoon against his mother.

BANK OF COMMERCE OFFICIALS HERE; SEE GOOD MOTOR YEAR

T. A. Russell, Professor Who Became Financier, Looks
Over Island Conditions

T. A. Russell, former professor of economics at the University of Toronto, who went into business to become head of great motor car company and now one of the directors of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, has been spending the day motoring on the island visiting the towns from Nanaimo south and sizing up industrial conditions here generally.

Mr. Russell is now a director of the Massey-Harris Company as well as being vice-president of the Willis-Overland Company.

"As far as sales of cars are concerned, we are looking forward to a substantial increase in Canada this year," Mr. Russell said. "In the United States, I believe that sales will fall off considerably. The bulge of prosperity in the last few years in conjunction with the enormous building programme there has fairly well exhausted the market. The loose method of time payments there may also have an effect on their trade."

As a result of the opening of a factory in Germany by the Massey-Harris Company of Canada, and another in France, some foreign business has been taken away from Canada, but it has given more space for sound Canadian growth, which would be the future policy of Canadian factories, Mr. Russell said.

C. W. Rowley of Toronto, assistant general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, is also in Victoria, conferring with branch bank managers here. He will probably start East to-night. P. B. Fowler, Victoria manager of the Bank of Commerce, gave a luncheon at the Union Club for Mr. Rowley. At the luncheon were four directors of the bank, James Richardson, George Allen and George Gault of Winnipeg and A. C. Flumerfelt of Victoria, and Mr. Justice Galtier, Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Finance; Hon. E. D. Barlow, Minister of Agriculture; Hon. A. M. Manson, Attorney-General; Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works; Reeve, Anscomb of Oak Bay, L. A. ## PINEDO IS TO FLY WESTWARD ALONG CANADIAN BORDER

Il Tevere said the destruction of the plane meant destruction of anti-Fascism, "so far as the whole civilized world is concerned."

News of the setback has saddened the Italian people. A new machine is to be sent to the fliers in accordance with Premier Mussolini's instructions. It will be of the same type as the one burned.

It is pointed out at the Air Ministry that a loss of two or three weeks will not in the slightest minimize the technical and industrial value of Pinedo's flight, and will not impair the credit due him.

Apache Lopez, Roosevelt Dam, Arizona, April 7.—Commander Francesco de Pinedo, whose seaplane was destroyed by fire here yesterday afternoon, does not believe the disaster was the result of an anti-Fascist plot.

Every possible effort to allay such suspicions as expressed by some Rome newspapers will be made by the Fascist aviator, whose four-continent flight has been delayed pending arrival of a new aeroplane.

The misfortune which overtook him, Commander de Pinedo said, "was the result of carelessness by a small boy. In no way could the tragedy be connected with Fascism. It was purely an accident, and I am sure my Government will regard it in no other light."

The fire was caused by an unidentified youth who flipped a match on the oil-covered waters of Lake Roosevelt near the Santa Maria.

James Gibson, one of several boys who were in the boat from which the lighted match was thrown, was located to-night.

Young Gibson said the boy who threw the match in the oil-covered water was a stranger, and that he and the stranger boy had been quarrelling over a lighted cigarette. It was during the argument, he said, that "the other boy threw the match away."

Pinedo has under consideration the offer of the United States Government to send him an army plane from Rockwell Field, San Diego, but has not definitely accepted it. The arrangement was made by the Italian consul at San Diego.

It was when everything was in readiness yesterday for the departure of the Pinedo party on the Apache Lodge-San Diego leg of its journey when the monoplane, hurt into flames. Pinedo was bidding good-bye to friends on the shore when the match struck the oil-coated water. A crash and it had committed to the plane, which was rapidly consumed.

Thousands of persons gathered on the shore of the huge irrigation lake witnessed the disaster. Among them were many Italians who had come to cheer their countrymen.

The twin-engined monoplane was the one in which Commander Francesco de Pinedo and his companions had flown from Sardinia to Africa and across the Atlantic Ocean, the wilds of South America, the Gulf of Mexico and part of this country.

After the fire the engines sank sixty feet to the bottom of the lake.

MARINO AND CRISTOFI APPEAL SENTENCES

Vancouver, April 7.—Writs of habeas corpus requiring the production in the Supreme Court here on April 14 of Frank Marino and Demisio Cristofi, who were convicted and sentenced by Magistrate Shaw to terms of two years in the penitentiary and one year in Okalla jail, respectively, for conspiring to smuggle narcotics into Canada, were granted to-day by Mr. Justice Murphy.

Bail of $10,000 was ordered pending disposition of the appeals.

Ottawa, April 7.—A motion by Premier King that this House should sit on Saturday with a view to prosecution before Easter, met with protests in the House to-day and was evidently allowed to stand over until to-morrow, when it again will be considered.

CANADA'S DEFENCE WORKS

MUCH TIME HAS BEEN USED BY certain elements in an effort to try to convince the Canadian people that this country is evading responsibility for its share in the defence of the Empire. During a discussion of the Imperial Conference report in the Senate yesterday Senator Griesbach announced that Canada's militia was weaker now than it had been for thirty years, that it was ill-trained and ill-equipped; that the Navy was a popular joke and the Air Force undermanned. Hoping to add to the force of his argument, irrespective of entirely differing circumstances and problems, he compared Australia's expenditure on defence with that of this Dominion.

What has Canada spent on defence? Does adequate defence always demand armies, battleships, or even aeroplanes? Can Canada's contribution to defence be fairly reflected in the size of her militia, her Navy, or in her Air Force? These are questions which might reasonably be asked and can be very adequately answered. When the Canadian Pacific Railway project was conceived its strategic and military value as an agency of defence was an important argument in its favor. Had it not been for the railways of Canada, into which the Canadian people have put several billions of dollars and for the maintenance of which they are contributing hundreds of millions of dollars every year, the outcome of the Great War probably would have been radically different from what it was.

For example, what would the armies of the Allies have done if it had not been possible to transport, without hitch, shells and other munitions from this country, especially at the critical period when every battery at the front needed them? This service, a really vital one, is a matter of record and the British Government does not hesitate to place a much higher value on it than many in this country who seem to have forgotten it.

Where did a large part of Britain's food supply come from? What would have happened during the submarine campaign crisis of 1917 if it had not been for the vast quantity of foodstuffs which went over Canada's railways from the great agricultural areas of the interior? We are not afraid to compare the value of this service with that which a score of Canadian battleships could have rendered.

Is it then to be so soon forgotten—it seems almost incredible—that Canada mobilized 600,000 men during those fateful years? Do 60,000 crosses in foreign lands mean nothing to those elements which are continually trying to belittle this Dominion's share in the defence of the Empire? It is difficult to reconcile these facts with some of the recent arguments which have been advanced on this question.

Premier King already is on record, and the budget has provided for it, as in favor of developing the Royal Canadian Air Force. This will be an important programme. In the meantime, however, with no war in sight, it should be remembered that Canada has a war debt which is taking 48.7 cents out of every dollar contributed to the Dominion Treasury to meet its annual charges and to guard us from further attack.

DE PINEDO'S MACHINE

THERE PROBABLY IS NO LAD ON this continent who is going through more mental torture to-day than he who threw the lighted match into the oil-covered water on which the giant monoplane of Commander de Pinedo was resting in the state of Arizona.

It was a most unfortunate occurrence, not only because the destruction of the machine has halted the triumphant progress of a brilliant aviator, but because it was one of those accidents which need not have occurred, and would not have occurred if the boy who was guilty of the thoughtless act had realized in time that oil does not mix with water. At the same time there is nothing extraordinary about the way the boy disposed of the match after he had lit his cigarette. How many indeed would have thought there was any danger in it?

The mishap, however, has produced a really extraordinary state of mind in Italy. This morning's dispatches inform us that some of the leading newspapers in Rome express the opinion that the destruction of de Pinedo's machine was caused by anti-Fascist agents. The Popolo di Roma—a rabid Mussolini adherent and supporter—runs its comment under this heading: "Ochius gesture of anti-Fascism abroad against the wings of de Pinedo." Nor is this journal surprised, for it says that "official circles are fully informed of the unmentionable anti-national activities being carried on in America by a few expatriates."

No doubt there are many anti-Fascists in the United States who have grown impatient at the suppression of all liberty in their native land; but the records of Fascism so far include very few instances where its opponents have resorted to Fascist methods of recording their objections to Mussolini rule.

The suspicions of the Rome newspapers regarding yesterday's incident will strike most people on this continent as supremely ridiculous.

NEW BRUNSWICK GOING "WET"

BY A VOTE OF TWENTY-SEVEN TO twenty—the latter including all the nine ultra prohibitionists—as well as the solid opposition—the Legislature of New Brunswick has given Premier Baxter's Government the authority to introduce a bill which will put the Province with the other Canadian provinces that have abandoned prohibition for a system of government control and sale of liquor.

It will be noted that New Brunswick does not propose to ask the people whether they desire any change in their liquor laws or not. In fact the method proposed by Premier Baxter is about the most direct method so far adopted since the provinces began to bolt from their semi-dry condition. The four western provinces submitted the issue to the people and asked for their instructions on the principle. In neither case was it considered a question of politics. Ontario, on the other hand, fought a general election with the liquor question as the main plank in the Government's policy. Premier Ferguson staked his political all on that single point and increased his authority in the Legislature in consequence. Quebec, it will be remembered, pioneered along a light wine course first and then went into the dispensary business with the more potent liquids.

Premier Baxter does not intend either to submit a bill to the electorate or to ask for instructions on the principle. He proposes to rely upon his majority in the Legislature to approve the measure which he now will introduce. If that should pass, and there is every indication that it will, his Province will have a system very similar to that about to go into force in Ontario.

With New Brunswick in the "wet" column, only Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island will be operating under prohibition laws; but it will be recalled that Premier Stewart of the latter Province recently declared that he proposed to conduct an election campaign on a government liquor control platform this year. Whether Nova Scotia will follow suit or not remains to be seen.

ENGLISH SONGS IN THE U.S.
From The New York Evening Post

It is not news that English folk songs, no longer known in the land of their origin, have been discovered among our Southern mountaineers, but the number of these songs is somewhat surprising, since it reaches into the hundreds. An added fact of interest is that they are being restored to popularity through the efforts of the English Folk Dance Society. That a mass of these lyrics was carried into the backwoods of our mountain districts by early English settlers—not to be forgotten as they were in their original home, but to be preserved and eventually recovered—here is a tale as romantic as that told in many of these songs themselves. With the great world, even that part of it which almost impinged upon their fastnesses, shut out, these independent mountaineers kept alive the oral literature which they had brought with them across the sea. Not the smallest feature of the paradox of the decay of these songs in their homeland and their survival in an alien clime is the scorn which multitudes of well-educated persons felt for an untutored population which, as it happened, however, unconsciously and obscurely, was rendering a rare service to scholarship and culture.

Queer Quirks of Nature

By ARTHUR N. PACK

The more one studies wild birds and animals, the more he is impressed with the fact that they are in many ways like humans. They seem possessed of the same elemental needs, are governed by the same emotions of love, anger, jealousy, greed or faithfulness and often they display a craftiness that rivals ours.

Take, for instance, the house wren, the waterfowl, the gulls, the gulls.

Just as there are some people to whom the mere mention of a snowstorm is a horror, so there are gulls that cannot bear the thought of winter. When the first cold storms of late autumn sweep the bleak beaches, these birds depart for southern waters.

On the other hand, there are some people who revel in the snow and cold. So there are many gulls who seem to like winter. They brave numbing cold, ice and snowy gales to spend the winter months in the waters that harbor their summer nesting colonies.

The winter waterfowl gather in great flocks along the waterfronts of cities, seeking bits of floating refuse for food. From time to time they perch on posts about the docks, as this penicillin chap is doing, as though pondering whether, after all, it is wise to spend winter in such an unfriendly climate. If there are fishing boats playing out of port, the gulls meet them, wheeling overhead by thousands, waiting a meal of fish offal.

THREE SHEETS TO THE WIND

"THREE SHEETS TO THE WIND"

The danger of a sail boat capsizing is greatest when it is "three sheets to the wind." A man in just the same predicament when he has quaffed too freely of the cup of cheer. This apt comparison of staggering men with tipsy ships originated around the wharves where sailors were wont to celebrate the beginning and end of each voyage by putting themselves in this condition known as "three sheets to the wind."

Canadian Questions and Answers

THE TRIAL OF RIEL

Q.—What was the trial of Riel?
A.—The trial of Louis Riel took place in Regina in 1885, when he was sentenced to death for rebellion. A writer gives the following pen picture: "The whole proceeding was a fascinating and inspirational display of dialectic swordsmanship. The quick, keen flashing of strong minds, as they struck or parried, had a sort of dazzling greatness which produced in the listeners a sense of the tremendous drama being played by masterly and earnest men. Nothing but whole-hearted devotion, to deep study—a devotion which scorers delight and lives laborious days, can ever enable men to present arguments such as the lawyers on both sides used during those eventful days of Riel's trial." But, as already stated, the appeal was overruled by the higher courts, and Riel was executed, meeting his death bravely on the scaffold at Regina in November, 1885.

RADIO AND CPCT

To the Editor:—I have no connection with the Radio Club, and know nothing of the personnel of the membership, or officials, or the recent caustic criticism of that organization. I endeavor to improve local radio conditions is so unjustifiable that you will perhaps permit me to reply to some of the statements made. With a selective radio set, over two miles from the local station, I have been repeatedly annoyed, during the last year, by the broad tuning of the local station, which only very occasionally was in anything like the condition it should have been. Immediately after the first vigorous protest recently in your paper, CPCT tuned more sharply than it has at any time during the period referred to. I had been at considerable pains to learn the cause of the defect, and the change confirms the information I had received from various people—that much better technical knowledge of radio than I possess. The fact that some of our correspondents could reach KGO without interference from CPCT proves nothing, except possibly their own lack of very efficient, as a really good receiver might have more trouble from a local tuning broadly than one less efficient.

The suggestion of the Radio Club to change the frequency is debatable, only, however, as to whether the change would interfere with two of the finest stations on the air, KFI and KPCC. The wait of agency on account of crystal set owners is needless, as the change should not affect them, so far as I am aware.

That the power of the local station should be reduced, or the transmitter removed eight or ten miles from the city no one with the most rudimentary knowledge of the technical side of radio should dream of disputing. The program may be the best procurable, but I cannot imagine any musician maintaining they are consistently of such quality as to justify cluttering up the already overburdened air for 500 to 1,000 miles around us with the power used. If, however, the owner of the station feels justified in using 500 watts, those of us who have a taste for grand opera and symphony orchestra—and are willing to spend the money to reach them—surely are not unreasonable in asking him to remove his transmitter to a distance where it will not only function far better, but cause no annoyance to us.

The Radio Club has been of great benefit to Victoria radio fans, and I regard the statement that its action is actuated by animus towards CPCT as absurd.

I have no doubt the local station is often blamed by exasperated radio enthusiasts for interference which originates elsewhere, but that its broad tuning has been a nuisance to DX listeners is indisputable. There is much to be accomplished before radio conditions in Victoria are as good as they should be, and the efforts of the local association ought to receive encouragement, rather than the destructive criticism which is being indulged in. We are the United States cleaning house, I look forward to the day when Canada shows her a lead by establishing a national chain of broadcasting stations, of which we already have the nucleus in the magnificent stations of the C.N.R.

J. L. NEATE.

STATION CPCT

To the Editor:—Certain persons appear to misunderstand the attitude of the Victoria Radio Club towards the station CPCT. They have taken action to ascertain the facts before airing criticism of this club. The executive of the club has instructed me to make the following statements:

1. The Victoria Radio Club favors the operation of a good station in Victoria.

2. The club supported by deputations to the City Council the application of Mr. Deaville for a civic subvention, and was an important factor in his success.

3. The club seeks all practical betterment in local broadcasting. Therefore it has recommended transfer of CPCT to a high wavelength now unoccupied. This would not deprive crystal set users in any way, while Victoria would get out to greater distances.

4. Reduction of power to fifty watts would be effected by decreasing interference without reducing the value of CPCT to crystal set owners. CPCT would thereby comply with existing regulations governing stations in city locations.

5. The club desires continuance of CPCT and its improvement. To this end a large meeting unanimously endorsed representations on above lines being made to Ottawa.

G. HAROLD GRANT.

President Victoria Radio Club, 71 Linden Avenue.

BRITAIN'S POLICY IN CHINA IS FIRM ONE

Conciliation and Readjustment Are Keynotes, Says Chamberlain

London, April 7.—Sir Austen Chamberlain, Foreign Secretary, addressing the House of Commons on the Chinese situation yesterday, said the British Government would pursue a policy of conciliation and adjustment of the old position in China and meet the new aspirations of the Chinese people and the conditions of the country as events progressed.

Then, after a pause, he said slowly and solemnly: "Great Britain is not prepared to be hustled out of China." His statement drew cheers from the Conservative benches, after which he continued: "Nor are we prepared to withdraw our nationals from Shanghai and other up-country places, or be treated as though they had no right to that which is theirs by treaty and as though the lives of Britishers were of no account to the British Government."

CHAMBERLAIN
Regarding the British policy, which he said was unchanged, Chamberlain asserted it was essential that before this policy could be carried farther Great Britain must know what was the attitude of the responsible authorities in China regarding the Nanking outbreak of two weeks ago.

REPARATIONS DEMANDED
Referring to a statement by John Wheatley, a Laborite, that the Foreign Office had estranged the other powers, Chamberlain said: "I believe all the powers concerned will be in substantial agreement that it is necessary to require redress for our subjects, and are also agreed as to the terms wherein this redress should be demanded. The United States, Japan and Great Britain will probably agree not merely to ask for reparations, but as to the amount which should be asked for."

He gave details and further instances of reported looting and outrages on hospitals and other buildings and said it would be a mistake to suppose these attacks were confined to the British and Chinese forces which Chinese agitators had aroused were directed against foreigners indiscriminately.

After Chamberlain had made his statement various Laborites expressed their views in opposition to the Government's policy.

DIFFICULT TASK

Then former Premier David Lloyd George, Liberal leader, arose and remarked Chamberlain's task was difficult and that he and his friends had no desire to embarrass the Foreign Secretary with further discussions in view of the pending negotiations on the Nanking incident.

LIVELY DEBATE IN THE COMMONS ON NEW SETTLERS

Ottawa, April 7.—If the Maritime farmers can't earn a living, how do you expect British families to settle in that part of Canada and earn a livelihood?

This question by G. G. Coote, U.P.A., Macleod, Alberta, started a lively few minutes in the House last night. Maritime Province members were immediately on their feet. The farmers of the Maritimes, they said, were discriminated against by the railroads, but notwithstanding, they were able to keep going. There was a great deal of discussion of the fire as the eastern Canadian members insisted more attention should be given to bringing immigrants to settle in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

FUNDS VOTED FOR IMMIGRATION WORK

Commons Approves Plans of Department Headed by Hon.
Robert Forke

Ottawa, April 7.—Estimates of the Department of Immigration and Colonization totaling $2,345,000 were approved by the Commons last night. The sum includes $265,000 for civil administration and $750,000 toward the Empire settlement scheme.

The discussion which lasted several hours before the votes were finally passed, took in practically all phases of the department's activities. Its recent disagreement with the Salvation Army came in for debate with some of the members, particularly from the prairies, supporting the department's position on the ground that since it was in the immigration business, it should not hand over its work to outside organizations. Others expressed regret the Government had decided to stop its grants to the Salvation Army, emphasizing it had been an important factor in colonization in the past.

FORKE'S VIEWS

Hon. Robert Forke, Minister of Immigration, was optimistic regarding the outlook for the coming summer and the years immediately to follow. Confident of the future of Canada, the Minister did not fear that the bringing out of large numbers from Great Britain would increase unemployment. He promised to give consideration to the bringing of immigrants to the Maritime Provinces as well as to the West, and urged co-operation by all parts of Canada in the work of lending a hand to the immigrants and otherwise assisting the department in its important work.

Three Murders Are Confessed by Man

Bluefield, W. Va., April 7.—Henry Griffiths, forty-nine, of Richlands, Va., has confessed he murdered the two women, one of whom was his wife, and a man, whose bodies were found in the Clinch River near Swords Creek, Va., Tuesday, according to Harry H. Couch, sheriff of Russell County, Va.

The bodies were identified as those of Milla Griffith, thirty-five; Matthew Lawson, thirty-one, and Lawson's wife, Pearl, thirty.

Pre-Easter Demonstration of Men's Style Clothing

Continues To-morrow and Saturday in the Men's Department, Main Floor

The object of this pre-Easter demonstration is to convince the men of Victoria that really good Clothes need not be expensive. Owing to our tremendous buying power, which enables us to purchase in large quantities for all our stores, we are able to offer the finest tailored Suits and Topcoats at prices that defy competition. See our special window displays and then step in and try on one or two of the garments. Note the superiority of the fabrics. Note the excellent fit and finish that characterize all our clothing.

Smart Easter Suits

For Women and Misses

Distinctive Suits tailored with that nicety and precision demanded by women who know that a suit owes its smartness largely to faultless tailoring. Single and double-breasted models in finest fabrics and newest shades.

New Tweed Suits at $25.00

Well tailored from smart tweed mixtures in shades of brown, fawn and grey. Some show the short double-breasted coat with tailored collar and sleeves, others are belted with narrow leather strap, have short swagger skirts with and without side pleats; sizes 16 to 40. Price

New Compose Suits

Smart, sporty looking suits developed from two distinct varieties of material. The short belted coat is of plain fabric and the skirt is of fancy design or vice versa. Collars and cuffs are faced to match the skirt. Shown in combinations of rose, black and white, fawn and grey tones; sizes 16 to 38. Price

Poirot Twill, Charmeen and Novelty Tweed Suits

Expertly tailored Suits made in the short box coat style, either with double-breasted fronts or three-button fastening. Some have bound edges of silk braid. Shown in wool tricot, charmeen and poirot twill, also imported tweeds in new designs. Smartly cut skirts with single pocket, some having pleats at side. Coats lined with silk and crepe de Chine; sizes 16 to 40. Prices

Luxton

Luxton, April 7.—The regular monthly meeting of the Luxton and Happy Valley Women's Institute was held in the Luxton Hall on Tuesday.

Mrs. Higham, the president, was in the chair. Owing to her removal from the neighborhood she was compelled to tender her resignation, much to the regret of the members. Mrs. E. Goodsell was appointed to fill the vacancy thus occasioned on the Board of Directors and the new president will be elected at the next directors' meeting.

In answer to an appeal from the tubercular section of the Canadian League it was decided to send a donation from the institute. The health

BILL CAMERON Was Tellin' Me

—that a great many people don't know that our office is open from seven thirty in the morning until six o'clock in the evening and remember—we're open all Saturday afternoon, too. Due to a custom which sprang up a while back, we aren't allowed to stay on the job Sundays, but all the rest of the week there are, servin' satisfied customers right and left. Right now, they all seem to be particularly well pleased with that millwood and bark slabs I've been braggin' on. We're gettin' lots of compliments and a lot of repeat business. In makin' up orders for the day we figure one repeat order as worth a whole hatful of compliments—not that we don't appreciate the glad words, 'cause the compliment of to-day is the order of to-morrow, but in the meantime they won't buy records for the radio. ## NEWS IN BRIEF

The regular monthly meeting of the Spanish Fur Farmers' Association will be held in the Y.M.C.A. building on Thursday, April 7, at 8 p.m.

Charged with committing trespass on April 3 on the property of Ansel Campbell, Glendenning Road, J. E. Wentworth was acquitted by Magistrate Jay in the Spanish police court yesterday. Wentworth, J. Carmichael Lowe appeared for the defendant.

The Bible study class, conducted by the Rev. J. E. Wentworth, met in the Chapel of the Memorial Hall on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This class is open to anyone who wishes to spend an hour of profitable Bible study and discussion.

After considerable reconditioning the swimming pool at the Crystal Garden will be reopened on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A filter-back system will now be in use which will clean all the filters, while a chlorinator will be used to render the water as pure as can be obtained.

Little Helen Wilson, eight-year-old schoolgirl, was struck down by an automobile driven by Miss E. Moore on Yates Street this morning, but was not seriously injured, according to a police report. The injured child was on her way to school at the time. She was attended by Dr. Bayne.

For permitting a dog to kill sheep, the property of Robert's Farm, near John Fowler was ordered to pay $106 damages by Magistrate Jay in the Spanish police court yesterday. The defendant pleaded not guilty. Jack Christie, Constable Allan Rankin were witnesses for the prosecution.

The parking of cars on the south side of Beacon Hill Park, on the side of the road, is prohibited, and action to stop the practice will be taken by the city parks committee. It was decided at a session of that committee yesterday afternoon, under Alderman John Harvey.

The case of Wellston vs. the Victoria Mines Limited will continue in the Supreme Court before Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald this afternoon. More evidence was heard this morning. A. R. Ross took the stand today and testified regarding certain transactions alleged to have taken place between men concerned in the dealings of the company.

The meeting of the nominating committee of the Diamond Jubilee Celebration will be held in the Premier Oliver returns from the Okanagan. The Premier, on his recent trip to Ottawa, secured information regarding the public works committee to the City Council on Monday. The committee met yesterday afternoon, under Alderman William Marchant, chairman, and passed a list of street and trail improvements to be recommended for early action.

Advice has just been received as to the examiners who will do the work in Canada this summer for the Association of the names are as follows: H. C. Moule, Mus. Bac.; Dr. W. H. Harris; C. H. Hylton Stewart, Mus. Bac.; and Dr. R. O. Beecheroff. Of these gentlemen, Dr. H. C. Moule and Dr. Beecheroff will conduct the examinations in British Columbia.

Permission to E. A. Scott to erect stables on his property on Heywood Avenue, with a view to establishing a riding academy, will be recommended by the public works committee to the City Council on Monday. The committee met yesterday afternoon, under Alderman William Marchant, chairman, and passed a list of street and trail improvements to be recommended for early action.

A banquet and concert will be held in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Henry Street, Victoria, B.C., on Friday evening, April 8, at 6.30 p.m., under the auspices of the "Joy Girls" group of "Canadian Girls in Training." The concert will be rendered by some of the popular artists of the city and will commence at 8 p.m., after the banquet.

Lighting a city's thoroughfare will be the subject of a ten-minute address by Alderman H. O. Litchfield over radio station CPCT at 7.30 p.m. to-day. Alderman Litchfield is chairman of the health and morals committee of the City Council, the same committee also looking after the street lighting plan. Victoria is one of the best lighted cities on the coast for its size, and he is prepared to prove it, states Alderman Litchfield, in preparing for his address.

The meeting of the Robert Burns Memorial Chapter I.O.G.T.F. for the month of April, took place Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Claire Allen, Greenwood Avenue. Two new members were welcomed to the chapter, the Misses Madeline Priestley and Kathleen Tadmam, the latter having transferred from Vancouver. A very satisfactory report was made on the St. Patrick's Silver Tea and sale of work held on March 19, and plans were made to hold a bridge party on April 23 at the home of Mrs. H. G. Bolt, Regent. At the adjournment of the meeting, a social hour was enjoyed, and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

JUDGMENT FOR $11,578

Vancouver, April 7.—Judgment for $11,578.75 and cost was awarded Alfred Marshall Carmichael by Mr. Justice Gregory yesterday, at trial of Supreme Court action against Ingersoll Ernest Haight, in which the plaintiff alleged fraud and misrepresentation in inducing him to purchase shares in the Anglo-Canadian Development Company Limited. J. B. Pattullo, K.C., appeared for the defendant, but the action was not defended.

PRINCE WINS

Oxton, Nottinghamshire, Eng., April 7.—The Prince of Wales rode his own mare, Lady Don, to a thrilling victory in the South Notts point-to-point steeplechase here to-day. The 3½-mile race was run over a heavy course. The Prince lost the lead once, but regained it when, handily, cleared wildly by women bettors who had backed Lady Don.

Solarium Wants Linen.—The Women's Auxiliary to the Solarium is appealing for old linen suitable for making into bandages for use with the splints. Any donations of this kind will be very gladly welcomed, and may be left at the office, 918 Government Street.

WEEK OF BLOOM FOR FLOWER SHOW

Governor-General to Conduct Formal Opening at 2.15 p.m. To-morrow

Wonderful Display of Vancouver Island Early Blooms to Be Shown

Over 300 entries have already been received for the inaugural Spring Flower and Daffodil Show, to open at the main building, Willows Grounds, Friday. The doors will be thrown open at 2 p.m., with the formal ceremony at 2.15, when His Excellency the Governor-General will declare the show open. The exhibition will be open to the public for two days, closing on Saturday.

The flower show will be an outstanding exhibition of the wealth of bloom assembled by Vancouver Island and Gulf Island communities at a time three weeks in advance of any other in the province. Two full-days have retarded the selection of entries for the exhibition, but despite that a wealth of bloom is shown in time for the judging to-morrow.

FROM UP-ISLAND POINTS
The entries received up to this morning included upwards of 200 from up-island communities, showing the keen interest taken in the first joint showing under the auspices of horticultural and rural societies from the Alberni Canal south to Victoria. Entries in the wild flower contest open to children have been particularly heavy, and will prove one of the feature attractions of the show.

Supporting the movement with some of its best interest trade exhibits will form a large selection of the exhibition, and are expected to be an outstanding display of early spring flowers of the island.

The inaugural exhibition is staged under the auspices of the Alberni and District Horticultural Society, B.C. Agricultural Association, Cowichan Horticultural Society, Cowichan Agricultural Society, Metochian Farmers' Institute, South Saanich Farmers' Institute, South Saanich Farmers' Institute, Ward Two, Saanich Cottage Gardeners' Association, Victoria and District Gardeners' Association, Langford Women's Institute, Royal Oak Women's Institute, and the King's Daughters, Victoria.

The patrons are Mrs. J. Dunsmuir, Mrs. E. R. Armstrong, Mrs. H. Beaven, Mrs. R. Wilson, Hon. S. F. Tolmie, General Sir Percy Lake, Rev. W. W. Bolton, Victoria; Dr. C. T. Hilton, Alberni; and A. Peterson, Cowichan.

The general committee, which completed all arrangements for the exhibition, includes P. R. Leighton, chairman; E. M. Whyte, Alberni; R. M. Palmer, Cowichan; W. Waldon, Cowichan; Geo. Robinson, South Saanich; Prof. E. M. Straight, Experimental Farm; Mrs. E. I. Hammond, Saanich; Mrs. H. Veed, Royal Oak; Mrs. Pinhorn, Royal Oak; Mrs. A. Bastin, Mount Newton; Mrs. Savory, Langford; Mrs. L. H. Hilde, Victoria; Mrs. R. P. Watson, Ketchikan; Mrs. J. A. Burgess, Metochian; Whitney Griffiths, Metochian; T. Purdy, B.C. ## LIGHT SNOW FLURRY SURPRISES VICTORIA

Winter Peeps in While Spring Is Reigning

Indications Point to Another Cold Snap on Prairies

After Spring with all its charms has taken possession of early citizens were surprised early this morning to see the shadow of departed Winter in the form of a slight flurry of snow.

There was not enough to make it measurable and reports from the Gonzales Meteorological Observatory this morning show that it is the result of a cold wave coming south from the Yukon. Sixteen inches of snow, a record for the district fell in Prince Rupert. The storm, Na pier Deason said, will cause another cold snap on the prairies as the wind is now traveling in that direction. Victoria, too, can expect weather that will be usual to-night with a westerly wind.

Only three times since 1885 has Victoria seen snow before in April. In 1890 two-tenths of an inch fell and the same amount in 1918. Seven years ago there was one-tenth of an inch on April 2.

Yesterday's storm was centred off Quebec and Islands and moved in a southeasterly direction. All coast stations reported heavy seas last night and storm signals were posted at Victoria, Nanaimo and Vancouver.

This morning the signals were lowered as the weather men were of the opinion that the high wind which had dropped would remain at that position.

Very little damage was reported as a result of the storm although the Government telegraph line past Jordan River went down during the night.

HOUSE WEDDING IS PRETTY CEREMONY

Mrs. Maud E. Keddy and Ivan J. Stephen United Last Evening

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mason C. Sands, Quadra Street, last evening at 8.30, when Rev. Dr. Clem Davies united in marriage Mrs. Maud E. Keddy to Ivan J. Stephen. A large number of guests were present. The bride was escorted by her brother, John Lussie, to the altar, where a large company of friends of the happy couple.

The bride entered the drawing-room escorted by her brother, John Lussie, to the altar, where a large company of friends of the happy couple. The bride was escorted by her brother, John Lussie, to the altar, where a large company of friends of the happy couple.

During the signing of the register, Miss Mabel Humphries sang, "O Promise Me." Mrs. Sands, Mrs. Stephen, mother of the bridegroom, and Mr. Zelinsky, sister of the bride, received the many guests, and Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Loree, Mrs. Schuman and Mrs. Strong served the refreshments. A large number of the guests were seated at tables in the dining-room which was attractively arranged with pink carnations in a filmy mist of mauve tulle, and the three-tier wedding cake in the place of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen will make their home in Victoria.

LADY WILLINGDON VISITS RESTHAVEN

Is Conducted Through Sanatorium, Manifesting Interest in Various Departments

Her Excellency Lady Willingdon visited Resthaven at noon to-day and met many of the guests and the staff of the sanatorium. She manifested much interest in the different departments of the institution, through which she was conducted. Her Excellency expressed herself as greatly pleased with the attractive surroundings provided for care of the sick. Lady Willingdon was accompanied by Captain the Hon. C. C. Jarvis.

W. T. Jago, field secretary of the Local Orange Association for British Columbia, will pay an official visit to Lord Willingdon, L.O.L., 2324 Friday evening of this week; Premier, L.O.L., 1510 on Monday night, and Sir Henry Wilson, L.O.L., 2922, Tuesday night. A large attendance of members of all the city lodges on each occasion is desirable.

HIS MAJESTY TO GREET BOYS' BAND WHEN IN LONDON

Rotarians Learn of Governor-General's Arranged Meeting With King George

True to his word, His Excellency the Governor-General of Canada has arranged a royal reception for the Victoria Boys' Navy League Band when in London, it was announced at the Rotary Club luncheon meeting in the Empress Hotel to-day.

The band delighted Rotarians with several selections this afternoon.

Francis Dougherty, reporting on the success of the Rotary superfluity sale, held in the old Woolworth Building, Government Street, yesterday afternoon, stated that the sum of $1,100.55 had been taken in through the sale.

E. D. Tomlin, president, thanked all who participated in making the sale a success. He particularly thanked the ladies who contributed their time and energy to the sale. The funds derived from the sale will be used for general purposes, the first $250 to go to the Solarium, and the second $250 to the Y.W.C.A. The remainder of the money will be used for general purposes.

It was announced by Gordon Leckie that His Excellency the Governor-General would plant a tree in the proposed plant garden at Beacon Hill Park on Saturday at 9.45 a.m. He invited the members to attend.

Walter J. Chubb reported on the plans for organization for the Courtenay Rotary Club. He asked the volunteers from the club to attend the first organization club and many responded.

E. R. Webb told the Rotarians of the plans for the European tour of the Navy League Band. He had a letter from His Excellency the Governor-General, stating that he had arranged for His Majesty King George V. to welcome the band in London. The band would be a credit to Victoria, said Mr. Webb, and critics declared that it was a wonderful well-trained organization.

Rotarians to assist the band financially, since they required a reserve fund before they could leave for England.

STUDENTS TO HEAR HISTORY OF SCHOOL

Celebration of Golden Jubilee of High School Begins To-morrow

At the Victoria High School on Friday afternoon the students will begin the two-day celebration of Golden Jubilee. At 2.30 o'clock all classes will adjourn to the auditorium where a brief historical sketch will be given by Principal R. Dilworth, in which he will tell the interesting story of the school from its inception many years ago when Victoria was under the old regime, a picturesque colony the headquarters of Her Majesty's fleet on the Pacific, and Queen Victoria after whom the city was named, was still in the heyday of her sovereignty.

REPRESENTS HUMBLE BEGINNING
The handsome modern High School building of to-day represents a very humble beginning, a little old wooden structure in the Central School grounds, which still stands but has been so altered and added to that it is beyond recognition. Appropos of Mr. Dilworth's talk there will be an old-fashioned parade. A great many costumes of those bygone periods have been carefully preserved and still retain much of their picturesque beauty. These will be worn by the children and grandchildren of the old students and there is a large number of them who are looking forward to the donning of these quaint costumes with much amusement.

Following the programme the students will adjourn to the gymnasium where they will dance. Parents of the pupils are invited to attend at 3.30. Tea will be served in the lunch room.

At the reunion of the old students at the banquet on Saturday, which will be held at 8.30 instead of 8.30, as was previously announced, there will be some interesting speeches by J. C. Newberry, who was the first head pupil of the school, Herbert Kent, a classmate of Mr. Newberry; George Jay, who has been connected with the school board for years; Dr. E. B. Paul, for sixteen years principal of the High School, and B. S. Nicholas.

It is hoped that all of those who are unable to attend the banquet will attend the reunion on Saturday when the programme will be continued. A feature of this part of the celebration will be community singing of songs which were popular thirty and forty years ago, among them: "Sweet Adeline," "Two Little Girls in Blue," "Sweet Bunch of Daisies," "Little Annie Rooney," "After the Ball," and "Marguerite." Miss Marjorie Watson and L. W. Conyers will sing solos; Miss Ella Pottinger will give a reading in costume; Miss Gladys Schraepel will play the violin and Miss Ruellie Hall the piano. The soloists are all ex-students of the school.

On Saturday evening also there will be on sale a limited number of a special edition of the High School Magazine, The Camosun. In this will be published personal reminiscences of former pupils and a historical sketch. It will be known as "An Old Students' Issue" and will be an interesting memento of a unique occasion. Jack Farnell, the editor, is working hard to make this feature a pronounced success.

LORD WILLINGDON TO PLANT FIRST TREE

Governor-General Will Perform Ceremony at Beacon Hill Saturday Morning

On Saturday morning at 9.45 o'clock His Excellency, Lord Willingdon, Governor-General of Canada, will plant a native dogwood tree in the proposed native botanical garden in Beacon Hill Park.

The affair will be attended by representatives of the Provincial Government, officials of the city and adjoining municipalities and members of the service clubs in the city.

The dogwood tree, which is the nearest native plant to Victoria that could be located, was chosen by F. R. Pemberton and Alderman John Harvey, chairman of the parks board. The ceremony was arranged by the trustees of the native plant garden.

The tree will be planted at a site close to the Goodacre Lake in the easterly section of the proposed garden.

The native plant garden will occupy about eight acres, and is in that portion of Beacon Hill opposite the South Park School. The site itself is suitably adapted for the purpose for which it has been chosen, and blends itself to the native plants which will be planted there.

The garden will be a provincial as well as civic enterprise. Native plants and shrubs from all over the Province will be sent to Victoria to be planted in the garden. The care of the garden will be in the hands of a perpetual committee who will have complete charge.

OBITUARY

Miriam Alice Guest, aged thirteen years ten months, passed away yesterday afternoon at St. Joseph's Hospital. ## First Stanley Cup Game Played in '95

Queen's, of Kingston, and Montreal Appeared Before 400 Fans in Montreal in First "World's Series"; Times Have Certainly Changed Since Then and Great Crowds Now Clamor for Seats; the Stanley Cup Has Traveled Far and Wide; Victoria Has Seen It

Times sure have changed since the first game in the Stanley Cup competition between Montreal, champions of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, and Queen's College, Kingston, champions of the Ontario Hockey Association. This game was played at the Victoria Rink, Montreal, on March 9, 1895, before the grand total of 400 spectators.

At that time the Stanley Cup was played for by amateur teams. Since then it has passed into the hands of professionals and, instead of attracting hundreds of fans, it draws them in thousands and has millions on the outside listening in.

This year the Stanley Cup is being played for between the Ottawa Senators, representing Canada, and the Boston Bruins, representing the United States. This is the first time that the Eastern Americans have figured in the series. Portland and Seattle played in the series in the past. Tremendous interest has been aroused.

THAT FIRST GAME

The line-ups and summary of the first game for the Stanley Cup in 1895 are as follows:

Montreal.
H. Collins. Goal. R. Hiscok. F. Bickelike. Point. G. Curtis. A. Cameron. Cover-point. Taylor. Mussen. Forwards. Cunningham. C. D. Mackerraw. McKay. Routh. McLennan. Hodgson. Weatherhead. Referee. F. C. Chittick. Ottawa. Umpires. F. McBride and A. Robinson.

The much-valued trophy took a journey west after the match of February 4, 1896, which took place at the Victoria Rink in Montreal. The Winnipeg Victorias scored two goals in the first half and the Montreal Victorias, district champions, failed to score at all. "Whitney" Meritt, the Winnipeg goal keeper, was the hero. Here are the teams as they lined out:

Winnipeg.
G. H. Merritt. Goal. R. W. Jones. R. Platt. Point. H. Henderson. Hingobin. Cover-point. M. Grant. H. Howard. Forwards. S. Davidson. J. C. Armistage. R. McDougall. D. Bain. Wallace. C. Campbell. Referee. Alex. Martin. Toronto. Umpires. A. Shearer, Montreal, and F. W. Ashe, Winnipeg.
Scorers. Armistage, 10 mins.; Campbell, 9 mins.

The following is a list of matches played for the famous cup:

Thousands Will be Denied Chance of Seeing Bruins Meet Ottawa Senators

Boston's Count of Aggressiveness to Beat Ottawa; Teams in Good Shape

Boston, April 7.—For the first time in nine years a Boston professional athletic team will swing into action to-night as a finalist in a world's championship series, when the Boston Bruins take the ice against the Ottawa Senators in the first contest of a five-game series for the Stanley Cup. They will try to emulate the Red Sox of 1918, who landed Boston's last world title in baseball.

The Senators, who held an easy lead in the Canadian division of the National Hockey League during the winter schedule, are famed for their cool, defensive play and steadiness in crises. The Bruins, by sheer power and aggressiveness drew to the front in the American division of the league, eliminating the New York Rangers in the semi-finals.

Managers of both teams declared their men in good condition.

The second game will be played here on Saturday night and the third in Ottawa on April 12.

BIG HOUSE

More than 10,000 applications for seats were received by the Boston management for the games to-night. Less than one-third of these can be satisfied by the arena seating capacity of 7,000 and standing room for 2,000. Seats have been reserved for a Canadian cheering section which arrived with the Ottawa team to-day.

Both teams are made up of veterans, all but three of the Bruins having played in Stanley Cup series. Ottawa, with half a dozen of the players on her roster, won the trophy in 1923. The cup, presented in 1892 by Lord Stanley of Preston, a former Governor-General of Canada, was won last year by the Montreal Maroons.

The Bruins who escaped with only minor casualties from a fiery fight with the Montreal Maroons in the final series, expressed confidence of their ability to break down the stubborn Ottawa defense and bring to Boston its first world's championship. Followers of the game here gave the Bruins an even chance to win the three games necessary for cup honors.

Minneapolis, April 7.—Duluth captured the American Professional Hockey Association championship last night when it defeated the Millers in the third and final game of the post-season series, 1-0, in a thrilling overtime game.

COAST BASEBALL

Sacramento, April 7.—Sacramento defeated Seattle here yesterday for its seventh straight victory of the season. The Indians put up a real battle and chased Rachac to the showers in the second inning. The Herbers pitched good ball for the Indians, but was touched up lively towards the close. Jenkins, Seattle catcher, poled a home over the left field fence in the third.

PITCHING WILL MAKE OR BREAK WASHINGTON

The best outfield in the majors! That's how Bucky Harris, youthful pilot of the Washington Senators, speaks of his outfield composed of "Goose" Goslin, Tris Speaker and Sam Rice. Some folks may not agree with Harris, but they will have to admit that it is a powerful trio of fly-chasers. They can hit, too, don't forget that. The trio is conceded by all experts to be one of the best ever gathered together. Experts class it with the famous Hooper-Lewis-Speaker combination of the Boston Sox many, many years ago.

By BILLY EVANS

Washington has a great ball club, a strong pennant contender, if it gets consistently good pitching. That's the big rub.

If Washington merely gets so-so pitching, it is going to find plenty of obstacles in its pennant path, despite a great outfield, one of the best in the majors and a mighty superior catching staff.

There is no getting away from the fact that pitching is the all-important problem for the shrewd Stanley Harris, who, despite his youth, has proved that he is capable of coping with such serious handicaps in a most workmanlike manner.

Of all the pennant contenders, the question of pitching is perhaps the more uncertain on the Washington club than any other team in the majors.

There are two reasons for this condition—the doubt as to the ability of the veterans to come through with big years and the asking of too much from the recruit members of the staff.

Can Walter Johnson and Stanley Coveleskie win twenty or more ball games for Washington?

For years these two brilliant performers have annually turned in such records. Age is creeping on both of them. There must come a time when they will find the winning of twenty ball games too great a task.

This may be the year that they are to first feel the sting of age and what it exacts from the pitching arm.

Then one must consider Fred Marberry, the "Ironman" of baseball greatest relief pitcher of modern times. Can he continue to rush to the rescue of faltering pitchers day after day and check the opposition?

Marberry has been doing it for several years. He is a young man compared to Johnson, who is thirty-nine and Coveleskie, thirty-five, so it seems he should be able to successfully continue his arduous duties for several years to come.

President Clark Griffith and Manager Stanley Harris are well aware of the pitching problem the club faces.

Clark Griffith, in an effort to bolster his pitching staff, has spent considerably more money since the close of the 1926 season than any other club owner in either major league.

So interested is Griffith that he spends several hours each day handing out advice to the rookies.

The real value of the recruit pitchers can only be determined by actual competition.

Of the score of rookies working out, several impressed me rather favorably. I liked the style of Bob Burke, a southpaw. He reminds you in action of Herb Pennock, who is quite some left-hander.

Two husky right-handers, Hadley and Lisenbee, who performed in the Southern League, are good looking prospects. Dick Coffman, from the same circuit, is also good.

Two recruits of last fall, Al Crowder and Decatur Jones, should stick. Once Crowder gets control he will be tough to beat.

Then there is Hollis Thurston from the White Sox and Garland Braxton from New York, obtained in trades. Unquestionably these two pitchers will help the Washington staff.

Washington certainly has quantity when it comes to pitching; if the quality is there, watch the Senators step.

LAILA

A Tale of the Days of Christ, by John Newport
(Copyright, 1926, by Eugene MacLean)

"So!" he said. "You seek to murder me?"

The servant was holding Laila's arms now, thought she did not struggle. Jacob took the dagger from his bondsman's hand and examined it.

"A rare jewel," he said, turning the dagger over and over. "A ruby of the first water. Give me the sheath."

Laila made no move, but the servant, holding her with one arm, found the leather case, and handed it to his master. He slid the blade into its covering, and bestowed it in his garments.

"A dangerous woman," he continued. "She must be bound."

Their backs were toward the doorway, and they did not see the lecherous man, whose scarlet cloak swept to the ground.

"Bound?" said the newcomer, pleasantly. "Why should the woman be bound?"

Laila, the publican and the servant whirled. "Omar!" cried the woman. "The Persian!" said the tax-tender.

"Precisely so," said the newcomer, stepping inside the door. Jacob made way for him. Laila stood, held tightly by the bondsman.

"I came," continued Omar, "to show you a rare curiosity I picked up from a trader—something that might appeal to a public official of your great wealth."

The publican beamed, and invited Omar to take a seat on a deeply cushioned couch that stood near them.

"I am not rich," protested the publican, though obviously pleased. He glanced around the apartment. Omar's eyes followed his to the gridded windows, done in the workmanship of Tyre; the woodwork of yew and cedar; the costly cushions and carved olive wood tables; the heaps of embroidered cushions, and the numerous lamps, one of which was burning perfumed oil.

"A rich home, worthy of a man so eminent as Jacob," commented Omar.

His face was turned toward Laila, and presently he caught her glance. Then, directing his words to Jacob, but looking with intense meaning at the woman, he went on:

"The house of Ezra the elder is a rich one, but not so rich as this, I think. The house, I mean, directly behind your own."

"I know the house," interrupted Jacob, "though Ezra never has permitted me to enter, and even had my servant scourged from his door."

He was watching Omar's hand, that slowly was withdrawing itself from his bosom. Omar's eyes kept steadily upon the woman.

"Ezra's house," repeated the stranger, raising his brows significantly toward Laila.

At this moment his hand emerged from his mantle, and he extended toward Jacob a glistening chain, done in gold and turquoise, and interspersed with blazing precious stones. The bondsman and Laila pressed closer to see.

"It once belonged to an Egyptian high priest," the stranger said. "Here!" He held it to the servant, whose eyes were dilated at the most costly ornament he ever had beheld. "Hold it aloft, so your master may catch the light upon the jewels."

The bondsman loosed his hold of Laila, and reached for the chain. In that instant Laila leaped backward, and in another bound, was out of the door and speeding away. Omar leaped to his feet as if in pursuit, but he succeeded only in blocking the rush of the publican and his servant.

"Stop the woman," shouted Jacob. "Stop her!"

CHAPTER XIX

The first duty of a host in Palestine was to his guest. After his first shout Jacob drew back and apologized to Omar.

"The woman's flight excited me," he said. "I did not mean to cry out."

"It was my fault," replied the stranger, gracefully drawing to one side. "Doubtless you wish your man to run after the woman."

The servant restored the jeweled chain to Omar and hurried through the door. Jacob, torn between his duty to richly clad visitor and his anxiety over the capture of Laila, bowed and smiled and nervously rubbed his hands.

"Do not concern yourself with me," said Omar. "Go in pursuit of the woman, if you choose."

The publican, with rapid apologies, backed out the door. In a moment he was running around the side of his house, calling to his servant to follow. Omar stepped into the street, smiling, and tucking into his breast the gold and turquoise chain.

Standing with his hands behind him he watched the publican as he hurried from house to house, looking into the open doors and making rapid inquiries of men who passed by. Omar smiled more broadly as he noted that every townsman jerked his head backward, in the Jewish notion of denial, at Jacob's anxious inquiries.

The second servant had come out of the stable with the donkey ready saddled. Jacob called him and pointed to him with his hand. Then he himself proceeded with his excited search.

Omar walked a pace or two forward, to a point where he could see the door of the house where Ezra, the village elder, dwelt. That plump, good-natured townsman was standing in the doorway, looking about him placidly.

Jacob stopped before him, for an instant. Omar could see Ezra's head move backward. He also saw that, when Jacob turned away, Ezra smiled in deep satisfaction.

His own eyes twinkling, Omar strolled toward the market place. He walked past the village inn and to an open spot where he could see the road that ran near Laila's home. There he stopped and waited. Villagers going past him stared. He had become a familiar figure about Jezreel in the last week or ten days, but the townspeople never tired of examining his gold-embroidered garments, the great emerald that flashed always in his head gear, his jeweled sword and his shoes of soft leather, finely wrought.

Paying no heed to their stares and whispers, he stood with his arms folded, his bright black eyes fixed in the distance.

Before long he nodded, deliberately. Around Laila's house came a Roman soldier.

Behind came a tall Jew, bending beneath the end of a stretcher. On the stretcher was Antonius, and at the rear stumbled the same villager who had helped bear the soldier away. The bearers turned in to Laila's house. A squad of soldiers came and stood at the doorway. Then the officer strode into view.

Behind him came Maryam and her mother. They, too, paused before the door. In a moment the first stretcher bearer came out, and with the two women, walked slowly toward Maryam's home.

Omar walked toward them. The women were supporting the man between them, and, as the stranger walked past, he could hear the girl call her companion "father."

At the door of Laila's house Omar looked back, and, as the stranger walked past, he could hear the girl call her companion "father."

"There's a great deal of smoke from this fire!" coughed Jiggy.

"There is always smoke at a fire unless it's in a gas stove," said Squiggly. "We mustn't mind that."

So the two bugs sat in the smoke-buzzing about different things until, all of a sudden, along came hopping Sammie Littletail, the rabbit boy. He looked at Squiggly and Jiggy and exclaimed:

"Oh, what have you done to your pretty red spots?"

"Why, we haven't done anything," answered Jiggy. "But to our red spots," answered Jiggy. "At the same time he looked at his brother and said: "Oh, but Squiggly, your red spots are dull and dingy! They are black instead of red!"

"So are yours!" buzzed Squiggly. "Something must have happened—a-hek! a-hek! a-hek!" he coughed. "It's the smoke from your bonfire!"

Said Sammie the rabbit. "This smoke has made your pretty red spots quite dingy, my dear Squiggly!"

"Oh! How can we bring back the beautiful red in our spots?" sighed Jiggy. "If I had known this would happen I never would have made a bonfire."

"No!" echoed his brother. "But let's see if we can't rub the smoke off our red spots."

The Squiggles rubbed each other's spots with their legs, and Sammie tried to help, by rubbing with a piece of fern. But though some of the smoke came off, the Squiggles' red spots were not as bright as before.

"Perhaps if I get some water from the brook and wash your spots they will shine again," offered Sammie. Most kindly the rabbit boy dipped up in a green leaf for a cup, some water from the brook. But that did not wash the Squiggles' spots any brighter.

"Oh, dear!" sighed Jiggy. "Just then sounded a rustling in the bushes and out hopped Uncle Wiggily, with Dumble, the bright red Wogglesig boy from the hucklebump."

"What's the matter?" asked the rabbit gentleman, seeing how sad the Squiggles appeared. "Has anything happened?"

"Our bright red wing spots are all dingy and grimy from the smoke of our bonfire," answered Jiggy. "Never more shall we have pretty red spots!" sighed Squiggly.

"Tut! Tut! Nonsense! Of course you will!" laughed Mr. Longears. "Here, Dumble!" he called to the Wogglesig boy. "Let me take a little of the red paint off Dumble's tail, and the description may bring you the kind of a tenant you'd like?"

Uncle Wiggily and the Squiggler's Spots

Copyright, 1927, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Once upon a time, not so very many years ago, there were two little Squiggly Bugs named Squiggly and Jiggy. The little Squiggles had pretty red spots on the backs of their wings, and they were quite proud of these. Not to proud, you understand, but just proud enough.

One day Squiggly, who was rather larger than his brother, buzzed around and said:

"Jiggy, let's make a bonfire in the woods!"

"Fine!" buzzed Jiggy. "It will be fun! But have you any matches if you have, we must be careful how we use them, so we will not burn our legs or the pretty red spots on our wings. And we must not make a fire for us."

"That's right!" answered Squiggly, nodding his head. "And when we get through playing with our bonfire we must get the water bugs to wet down the embers so that the sparks will not start a blaze at night after we have gone to bed. But I have no matches. Have you?"

"No," buzzed Jiggy. "But we can ask a lightning bug to make a fire for us."

"Oh, yes," laughed Squiggly, and soon a lightning bug who was asleep under a leaf, was awakened and he kindly said he would light the bonfire for the Squiggles. This he did, and when he had crawled back beneath his leaf to wait for night, when he would shine more brightly, Jiggy and Squiggly sat about the blaze and where it will burn any of the beautiful trees."

"Oh, what have you done to your pretty red spots?"

Adlerika gives the system a REAL cleansing and brings out old poisons which may have caused trouble for a long time. Unlike most medicines, it acts upon BOTH upper and lower bowels. Just one spoonful relieves GAS and takes away that full, bloated feeling so that you can eat better and sleep better. Even if bowels move daily, Adlerika brings out more additional poison which you never thought was in your system and which caused sour, gassy stomach, nervousness, sleeplessness, headache. No matter what you have tried for your stomach and bowels, Adlerika will surprise you. At drugists. In Victoria at David Spencer's and other drugists. (Advt.)

WE MUST ADMIRE THE SUCCESS WITH WHICH GREEK WISE MEN SOLVED THE RIDDLES OF THE SKY BEFORE TELESCOPES WERE INVENTED. IT IS NOT STRANGE THAT IN THOSE EARLY DAYS MYTHS CENTERED IN THE MILKY WAY, SUN AND MOON.

LXXXII—The Milky Way.

ONE MYTH RELATED THAT THE MILKY WAY WAS THE SCORCHED PATH LEFT BY PHAETON WHEN HE LOST CONTROL OF THE SUN. THIS STORY SAYS JUPITER KILLED PHAETON TO PREVENT THE WORLD FROM BURNING.

DEMOCRITUS (BORN 469 B. C.) POSSESSED A REMARKABLY KEEN MIND. THE MYTHS DIDN'T FOOL HIM. HE WAS THE FIRST TO TEACH THAT MILLIONS OF STARS COMPOSE THE SOLID-LOOKING MILKY WAY.

by MAX HAHN

IF WE COULD FLY BILLIONS OF MILES FROM HERE WE WOULD SEE THAT THE MILKY WAY VIRTUALLY CIRCLES THE HEAVENS AND THE SUN IS NEAR THE CENTER OF THE CIRCLE.

Returns available March 15 show that the United States has so far this season exported 160,000 bushels of wheat and 22,000 of and between Winnipeg and Chicago is a noteworthy feature of the market. At one time the difference was 6 1/2 cents.

The investing public has held back, according to reports from Chicago, from buying wheat and wheat products. At the same time has exported 206,000 bushels to Australia and Argentine 130,000 bushels. In the coarse grain markets there has been a good demand at the seaboard, for both barley and rye. Futures in these markets are on Winter wheat prospects. These are now out of the way and are considered discounted. After crop prophecies three months away from harvest are not much to rely on and can change overnight.

DURANT PLANS RIVAL OF GENERAL MOTORS

New York, April 7. — William C. Durant's plan calls for the formation of a new corporation to be known as the General Motors Corporation. In order to give his entire time to the affairs of his automobile company Durant has resigned as chairman of the board of the General Motors Corporation.

Consolidated Motors, Inc., to be set up around the Star Motor Car Company, as he considers the product of that company the greatest automobile with which he has ever been identified.

His plan further provides for using the Star Company to build up a new company just as the Buick was used as the nucleus for the General Motors Corporation, and providing revolving funds so that buyers omobile body companies as well as other accessories manufacturing organizations. Stars can make time payments at cost of only 6 per cent interest, including insurance.

REAL ESTATE---HOUSES, LOTS and ACREAGE FOR SALE

DEMAND FOR FLATS

THE demand for small flats is very keen. The following houses, owned by estates, are suitable for conversion into three or four flats, and are in neighborhoods where good rents can be obtained. Buy one of these. Convert it, and either live in one flat or rent the other two. This is a sure way to make money in this way.

$1000—DOUGLAS STREET, near George Road, large lot, double frontage, with old 12-room house and barn. Has been well built, but in poor repair. Would make four flats.

$1200—GRANT STREET, near High School, large lot, with 2-room house, in really good repair, suitable for two flats.

$1500—PEMBROKE STREET, near Belmont, large lot with 11-room house, in fair repair. Has been well built. Would make three flats.

$2400—KINKER STREET, near car line, large lot, 4-room house, downstairs flat, upstairs very good. Very easily converted into two flats.

$3100—GOVERNMENT STREET, near sea, two lots and ten-room house. Two bathrooms. Already arranged two flats, would make more.

(Copyright)

FRIDAY, APRIL 8, 1927

Astrologers read this as an unimportant day in planetary direction. It is a time for systematizing one's affairs and relaxing effort.

Under this way intrigue is supposed to be encouraged and secret diplomacy will be prevalent among the nations of the world.

There is a sign giving promise of a revival of spiritual interest among the people and new cults will flourish.

India will send many teachers to America. It is foretold, to add those already here.

Churches will disagree seriously and there will be schisms, the sects prophesy, and yet unity will gradually be attained among many denominations.

Women now come under an influence supposed to encourage all the householdly virtues. Nursing will be studied with new interest.

Young folk are subject to the best direction of the stars at this time when many leaders of the future are in training.

Within the decade most of the men and women who have enjoyed fame in this century will pass on and their places will be taken by those now preparing for great responsibilities.

Women who have been proving their ability to take the places of men in the world's work are to turn again to their own field, if the stars are rightly interpreted, for there will be tasks for them which men cannot assume.

Beauty is to become a commonplace in this country where the supreme flowering of the Caucasian race is to be achieved before the darker races gain power, astrologers foretell.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a quiet year in which much may be accomplished.

Children born on this day are likely to be home loving and affectionate. They should be sturdy of character and stout of brain.

ORANGE CHAIN SETS REGULAR SCHEDULE

Regular nightly programmes on the orange chain on the Pacific Coast will begin next Monday.

Programmes presenting the finest talent available on the Pacific Coast will be released on the Orange chain every night, including Sunday, from 9 to 10 o'clock. The only exception to this rule will be made on Saturday and Monday nights, when it will be necessary, temporarily, to use the hour from 8 to 9 o'clock.

Owing to difficulties encountered in the transmission of music on the transcontinental line, it will not be possible to release New York or Chicago programmes on the coast chain until autumn. The National Broadcasting Company, however, has announced its intention of presenting on the Orange chain every outstanding event occurring on the Pacific Coast.

Stations in the Orange hook up on the coast are: KGO, KFO, KFI, KGW, KJL, KOMO and KFOA.

KOMO and KMO
Link For First
Time To-morrow

Radio stations KOMO, Seattle and KMO, Tacoma, will be linked together for the first time from 9 to 10 p.m. for the regular weekly programme of the Superior Service Laundry, Inc.

Warren Anderson, director of this orchestra has arranged an exceptionally brilliant programme for the occasion, including a number of classics in modern symphonic style, and some of the better known hits of the day.

Former Victoria
Girl to Play Over
Portland Station

Miss Jessie Carter, former Victoria girl will to-night be heard over the radio from station KEX in Portland.

Miss Carter is now a violinist of some repute and will be heard in a violin concerto from the Portland station, between 8 and 8:30 o'clock.

Augustus Mutt's Alibi Was Weak, Very Weak

(Copyright 1927, by H. C. Fisher Trade Mark Reg. in Canada)

MUTT, WHAT DO YOU MEAN BY COMING HOME AT THIS HOUR? ANSWER ME THAT!

I WAS ON MY WAY HOME FOUR HOURS AGO, M'LOVE, AND AS I WAS PASSING GEEVEM'S HOME THEY INVITED ME IN TO FILL IN THE FOURTH HAND OF A GAME OF BRIDGE!

SIR SIDNEY WAS ALSO THERE! MRS. GEEVEM IS A CHARMING HOSTESS, M'DEAR! I WAS GONNA LEAVE AT ELEVEN BELLS BUT SHE INSISTED ON COOKING SOME TRIDE!

YES, BUT—

NO BUT ABOUT IT! THE GEEVEM'S ARE NIFTY ENTERTAINERS! I'M SORRY YOU WEREN'T THERE, M'LOVE!

THAT'S A NICE STORY BUT IT HAPPENS THAT THE GEEVEM'S WERE HERE ALL EVENING! WHAT DO YOU SAY TO THAT?

AW, WHAT'S THE USE OF ARGUING WITH A WOMAN! ME FOR THE HAY!

SAP!

When you're feeling sick and blue
Kruschen's "just the thing" for you

A Happy Deception

This is a True Story

A husband saw his wife suffering from frequent headaches and little fits of depression. She wasn't ill, but still she wasn't as well as she ought to have been; she got tired easily, hadn't her usual good spirits, and sometimes there was a touch of rheumatism.

She Said Not a Word

She didn't know the Kruschen was there. Then her husband smilingly told her, and convinced by actual test, the pinch of Kruschen Salts was continued for a month.

What a difference! The headaches disappeared, the rheumatism vanished; colour came back to her cheeks. She felt better, was more cheerful, took up her own keen interest in her home and children.

Her case is common enough. Worry, anxiety and lack of open-air exercise cause men and women alike to become a little run down. The system gets sluggish, liver and kidneys do not do their work as actively as Nature intended; and impurities creep into the blood. Headaches, depression, constipation follow.

Kruschen Salts put all this right. They restore the internal system to vigorous activity. Every impurity is cleansed from the system, and clean refreshed blood circulates all over the body, restoring tingling health to every fibre of the system.

Every druggist sells Kruschen Salts—a 75c bottle lasts nearly six months—less than half a cent a day for keen, active health!

Tasteless in Coffee or Tea

Put as much in your breakfast cup as will lie on a 10 cent piece. It's the little daily dinner that does it.

Kruschen Salts

Good Health for Half a Cent a Day

The dose of a "dinner" taken every morning is found in practicing just the right amount for a most invigorating daily tonic. The medicinal dose to persons suffering from pains of rheumatism, joint, lambo or sciatica, or habitual constipation, with inactive liver, etc., is half to one teaspoonful in a tumbler of hot water before breakfast.

JUNIOR COMMERCE CHAMBER'S INVITATION TO OPPORTUNITY

Victoria

The illustration shows the attractive folder prepared by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as an invitation card to its inaugural meeting, to be held at the Chamber of Commerce, at 6.15 p.m. to-day. The invitation is entirely a made-in-Victoria one; printed on paper made on the industrial reserve, and finished by local printers and engravers. In addition to five-minute speeches to-night the following fine programme will be given: Classical duet by the Misses Bennett of the Coliseum Theatre; songs by Bert Waude, bass; Jockey dance by a troupe of five star artists; fancy dancing, by two star artists; burlesque comedy playlet; song and dance; toe-step dancing by Maureen Grute, through the courtesy of Miss Violet Fowkes. Mrs. M. Stewart, accompanist. Hunt's Gyro orchestra will play popular airs throughout the dinner period.

MANY CITY STAFF CHANGES IN CHICAGO

William H. Thompson, Republican, Elected Mayor, is Ousting Democrats

Chicago, April 7.—William Hale (Big Bill) Thompson, elected mayor of Chicago Tuesday for the third time, is now prepared to show the significance of thousands of new brooms distributed by jubilant supporters during Tuesday night's hilarious election celebration.

Thompson, Republican standard-bearer, who defeated Mayor William E. Dever, Democrat, by a plurality of 83,092, thus returning to the City Hall after a four years' absence, has indicated his intention of proving the truth of the adage that "a new broom sweeps clean."

Virtually every Democrat in the City Hall will find himself in the street shortly after "Big Bill" replaces "William" in the Mayor's office April 18, it is indicated. The Democrats are clearing out the desks and lockers in their offices in preparation for the broom act.

Thompson carried into office with him a Republican city clerk and city treasurer and a majority of the city council. In a statement after the election he announced one of his first official acts would be to remove William McAndrew, superintendent of schools, brought here from New York and declared by Thompson a "foreigner" and an "ally of the King of England."

NEW POLICE CHIEF

Morgan Collins, chief of police, appointed by Dever, announced that his resignation would be forthcoming shortly.

Dr. Herman N. Bundeisen, city health commissioner named by Thompson and retained by Dever seems about the only man likely to escape the broom.

Political postmortems on the election showed Thompson garnered nearly 60,000 of his 83,092 plurality in three South Side wards in the negro district.

Republican political leaders refuse to speculate on the effect Thompson's victory may have on national politics.

Shirley

Shirley, April 7.—The regular meeting of the Shirley Women's Institute was held last Saturday afternoon at the schoolhouse when owing to bad weather the attendance was less than usual, seven members and one visitor being present.

Mrs. P. E. Clark, president, was in the chair. A number of letters were dealt with.

Mrs. W. Dods of Otter Point, wrote on behalf of the Otter Point ladies, inviting the president, vice-president and secretary to be present at a meeting to be held at Otter Point schoolhouse on April 16, to organize a women's institute there. The invitation was accepted and appreciation therefor expressed. Mrs. Charters, secretary of the Sooke Women's Institute, wrote that it had been decided to postpone the course of home nursing until next Fall as being a more convenient time, the course covering six weeks. This institute is in favor of joining in with Sooke for this course.

It was decided to send an exhibit to the Women's Institute section of the Victoria Spring flower show if it can be arranged, but material is not particularly plentiful this year.

Mrs. N. E. Milligan, Mrs. D. C. Milligan and Mrs. E. Clarke were appointed to assist the president with it.

The results of the Boys' and Girls' Poultry Club competition have come to hand, Frances Arden receiving first prize, Vera Sullivan second prize, Wilfred Clark third prize and Lewis Milligan fourth prize.

The institute will encourage another competition this season among the children.

The address on "Home Economics," which was to have been given by Mrs. H. Anderson, was laid over until next month owing to her absence.

The moving picture entertainment at Jordan River Hall last Monday evening proved an attraction to many Shirley people. It was very good and will undoubtedly be well patronized as it is announced it will be held every Monday night.

Pro Patria Branch Willing to Assist China Casualties

At the meeting of the Pro Patria branch of the Canadian Legion held last night the following resolution was moved by J. Bowll and seconded by J. Dewar:

"That the Pro Patria branch of the Canadian Legion should itself on record to render all possible help and succor to invalided sailors and soldiers from China who may be sent to Canada for treatment."

The discussion started with a motion to endorse the Duncan resolution calling upon the Dominion Government to pay the costs in connection with all casualties reaching these shores. The duty of Canada towards its own people in China who are protected by the British forces, was urged as a reason for asking the Government to assume responsibility for these costs. It was pointed out that it was impossible to anticipate what action the Canadian Government might take in the event of a serious situation arising; the resolution, quoted above, pledging the support of Pro Patria branch in the care of sick and wounded members of the forces, was passed with enthusiasm.
